

Seven Hills Literary Contest

Call for manuscripts

Contest does not accept work previously published or having received awards in other competitions. Notify us immediately if your work is accepted elsewhere.

Win cash, publication, and recognition!

- $100 first place winners, $75 second place winners, and $50 third place winners.
- Plus publication in the Seven Hills Review

Contest Categories

Short Story 2,500 word maximum, any genre.

Creative Nonfiction 2,500 word maximum. Submissions in this genre could include (but are not limited to) memoir, food or travel writing, personal essays, new journalism, biography, nonfiction stories, and nature writing. The emphasis in creative nonfiction is on factually true yet elegant literary expression.

Children's Chapter Books or Short Stories for ages 6-12, with 2,500 word maximum. Submit a synopsis of the chapter book (100 words or less) along with a representative excerpt of 2,500 words. (Note: We offer children's picture book competition in alternate years.)

Flash Fiction 500 word maximum, any genre.

Submission Guidelines

- Submit three double-spaced copies, typed on one side of 8 ½ by 11 paper.
- Submission title should be in upper left corner and page number in upper right corner of each page.
- Author's name is not to appear on manuscript pages or on any materials attached to it.
- Also send cover page with author name, story title, word length, and author contact information, including e-mail address, mailing address, and short biography.
- Fee of $15 per submission, nonmembers. $10 TWA members with paid dues.
- On outside of envelope, please write the category of your submission.
- Manuscripts will not be returned or retained.
- A list of winners will be sent to all entrants via email and posted on the TWA website by year's end.

Send contest materials to

TWA Seven Hills Contest (category of entry)
P.O. Box 3428, Tallahassee, FL 32315

Postmark Deadline: Sept. 30, 2010 (Firm)

Visit website for details. www.tallahasseewriters.net